| Chairman of the Meeting: | Mr Peter Norman, Procureur du Bien Public chaired the Nomination Meeting. |
|---------------------------------|---|

| | |
|--------------------------|--|
| Convening Notice: | The Convening Notice was read by the Parish Secretary. |
|--------------------------|--|

| | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Election of Centenier: | The Chairman called for nominations to elect one Centenier for a three-year term of office expiring in 2025. |
|-------------------------------|--|

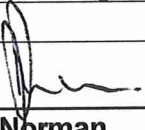

Centenier David Wheeler advised that as the Chef de Police, Centenier Michel Bougeard, was off Island, he had been given the proposal speech to deliver. Centenier Wright was also off Island at this time.

Centenier Wheeler read as follows: Centenier Bougeard having worked with Centenier Wright had no hesitation in proposing her for another term of office. Centenier Wright's organisational skills stands her in good stead in presenting any Court cases where she might be taking on the legal system. With her slight physical disability she certainly makes up for that in all other areas. Centenier Wright is a huge asset to the Honorary Police system and the Parish of St Brélade.

The Chairman asked if this nomination was seconded and Mr Arthur Morley did so.
