

Do YOU know how the Parish rates system works?

We want to better understand what Islanders know about the rates system as part of a review that's looking at the relationship between the Parishes and Government in key areas.

Have your say on how YOU would improve the current system - and share with us what you know about:

- Who sets Parish rates and what they are used for
- The difference between Island-wide and Parish rates
- How the appeals process works

Scan the code to share your views

Or email scrutiny@gov.je with your views.