A message from Reverend Peter

'My times are in your hands'
Psalm 31 verse 15

Lord, as many take time out from their work for a summer holiday, please refresh them in body, mind and spirit. Let the routine of their day-to-day life – where pressure piles on top of pressure and small matters become the focus of their energies – melt away as rest restores and revitalises them. When they return to the everyday, Lord, help them to keep you at the centre of all they do and carry on in your grace, compassion and mercy. Amen.

*His plan for today is all that I ask;
With Him I can leave the 'Tomorrow'.
So by faith I can walk, and with Him I can talk;
Just today, with its joy or its sorrow,
He my pathway hath planned, and, led by His hand,
Through the fire while the gold He's refining,
Be it trial or test, He knows what is best,
So I travel where love's light is shining.*

*With no plan of my own, but with Him on the Throne,
And to Him all my problems confiding,
He gives me a song as I journey along,
And His 'fullness of joy' is abiding.
Though the path may be steep, and the storm round me sweep,
Yet my soul He is constantly feeding;
And my strength He renews and with fresh power endues,
As I walk where my Master is leading.*

*Just His will for today, just to watch and pray,
To be still when to me He is speaking,
Just to kneel at His feet, in that secret retreat,
Where His face I am constantly seeking.
His plan for today, let it bring what it may,
Be it 'fullness of joy' or 'deep sorrow',
In His love let me rest, for He knows what is best,
So with Him I can leave the 'tomorrow'.*

LOOKING AHEAD

First steps of faith

We look forward to welcoming Simon and Amy Gallagher and their children Rory and Darcy for their baptism in our morning service on Sunday 26th July, led by Reverend Peter. May God bless their special day with love.

Colours on Parade

We look forward to welcoming the 1st Tewkesbury Boys Brigade Company to our morning service on Sunday 2nd August. They are visiting Jersey for their 70th Anniversary camp.

Lots of Thank You's!

Our Summer Fayre is almost a distant memory but thanks to all who supported in any way. As well as being a very enjoyable occasion, the Fayre raised something over £1,200 for church funds. Well done Terry and Team.

Thanks to Annette and Will for organising the two fantastic concerts held recently in our church. Both were very much enjoyed by those who attended.

Thanks to all who continue to bring items for the food bank. Please keep them coming!

A Summertime Blessing

May you walk with God this summer in whatever you do, wherever you go. Walking with God means walking with honesty and courage and walking with love, respect, and concern for the feelings of others. May you talk to God this summer — every day and in every situation. Talking with God means praying words of praise for the beauty of creation, saying prayers of thanks for friends and family in good times or sad times, asking God's help in all your decisions, and expressing sorrow when you have failed. May you walk and talk with God every day. Amen.

Have you considered signing up?

Circuit Weekend at the Biarritz Hotel

In response to a suggestion made at the Ignite gathering, we're really excited to announce that a Circuit Celebration Weekend 'Ignited' will be held at the Biarritz Hotel, arriving on 23rd October and departing on 25th October (2 nights). This weekend dovetails neatly into our mission priority to deepen our spiritual life.

There are fliers in the vestibule giving further details. Please take one and consider coming along.
